Advance Registration Announcement

Blue Ridge Mountains Congress of Magicians

— and A Gathering of Magicians

— May 17 - 20th, 2007

LAZARIS and Concept: Synergy are delighted to announce a Congress of Magicians and A Gathering of Magicians in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia in May of 2007. We are announcing these seminars now as registration completion is earlier for these seminars than it is for most events — and because we expect these seminars to close well ahead of time.

The theme for the seminars and specific details have not yet been given to us by Lazaris, but we expect A Gathering of Magicians to follow the magical format Lazaris has followed before: creating a breath-catching crystal grid with a beautiful and touching “Lazaris Working of Magic.”

Following the Gathering of Magicians will be a three-day Congress of Magicians, another powerful working of magic – a different kind of magical working – by this synergy of magicians from around the world, guided by the illumination of Lazaris’ discussions, explorations and techniques — and the magic and mysticism of his joyously rich and always innovative meditations.

The setting is magnificent: This part of Virginia is a magical place of sky and mountains — very old, very gentle, verdant mountains — shrouded in soft mists that paint their ridges beautiful purples and blues. Waterfalls and lush forests and meadows abound. The air is crisp and clear and clean. The views are long, magnificent and mesmerizing. In celebration, seminar sessions will be held outside as often as the weather permits.

It is a special pleasure for us to invite the ever-expanding and ever-more-loving synergy of magicians worldwide to join Lazaris in this remarkable place, a place, as Lazaris says, that is made sacred by the presence of those who come to work magic for themselves, for those they love, and for the world. A very special welcome ...

LAZARIS

Blue Ridge Mountains Congress of Magicians and A Gathering of Magicians ~ May 17-20, 2007

As you can imagine, organizing seminars in places that are rather more “off the beaten path” – that is, not in a major city near a major airport – requires a little more planning and organizing than usual for all of us. For that reason, we are asking everyone to make arrangements with us as soon as possible. One reason for that is that you’ll need to register with Concept: Synergy first to get the special code you’ll need to make room reservations at the Wintergreen Resort.

And because both seminar and resort space are limited, payment in full is due three months ahead of the seminar — on February 16th. If you find later that you need to cancel or transfer, please be sure you do so as early as possible, as the date you cancel will determine how much of your tuition can be returned or transferred.

Registering for the Seminars

Advance and Full Registration Fees:

The cost of this special 3-day Congress of Magicians is $375 per person if fully paid by February 16, 2007. You are invited as a guest to the Gathering of Magicians Thursday evening (May 17) at no charge. To take advantage of the advance price, you must be paid in full by February 16, 2007. Further, if you would like to make other payment arrangements, those payment arrangements must be agreed upon by February 16, 2007 as well. Depending on the nature of those arrangements you may or may not be able to take advantage of the advance price. Either way, all payments and/or payment arrangements must be completed by February 16, 2007.

If reservations are made after this date, the cost is $400.00 per person.

Registering at the Wintergreen Resort

Once you've registered with Concept: Synergy and received a discounted rate resort registration code, you can make your reservations at the The Wintergreen in the Virginia mountains. On the Wintergreen's 11,000 acres, there are wonderful restaurants – ranging from quick and informal to elegant.

The Wintergreen has a full spa, several swimming pools and a golf course, and offers activities as diverse as mountain biking, horseback riding, and nature walks. At some points on the Wintergreen's grounds the vista is 50 miles deep.

We'll be giving you more details upon seminar registration. Reservations at the resort are on a first come-first served basis, so early seminar registration should be followed by prompt registration at the resort.
