Orlando, FL ... June 18 - 20, 2004

Evening with Lazaris, "Intimacy That Works: Union, Co-Union, and Communion"

The Great Work: Reuniting Human & Faerie Magicians

There is so much that each – human and faerie that shares this Earth – can learn from each other and heal together. There are just so many miracles ...

Come. Let us celebrate – commit, honor, and commemorate – a union of magicians. Let us celebrate – come to make sacred - a union of love.

– Lazaris

Approaching summer's Solstice, Lazaris invites both humans and faeries to participate in two extraordinary rituals – two exceptional workings of magic: a union of magicians and a union of love.

With this esoteric invitation something stirs within us, and we don't fully understand why. There is a memory somewhere ... almost lost, it comes back to us as though lifting out of some forgotten recess of our hearts. Human and faerie magicians ... human and faerie magic ... we don't always know why, but we are drawn together and to each other; we are drawn to the Great Work that we share.

As we respond to the stirring and as we listen to that almost-lost voice, Lazaris offers to guide us through the worlds of Other into the faerie realm. Once there we can create – rekindling or making for the first time – empowering friendships and rewardingly intimate relationships. We can find the beauty and the wonder of what draws us, humans and faeries, together.

As we prepare for the rituals and the magical workings, we can create a synergy of spirituality and magic. We can bring the better of being human and the better of being faerie together creating a whole that is truly greater than the sum of its parts ... a greater spirituality and a greater magic.

Together, we can gather, collect, and combine the stuff of alliance. We can bind together in concordance ... in a linking of hearts. We can bond in commitment, conviction and loyalty. We can create union, a sacred union.

The Great Work: Reuniting Human and Faerie Magicians

A union of magicians: Greater happiness, transcendence (the epitome of changing and growing), metamorphosis (the ultimate of visions and dreams) ... these can be ours. Beginning, continuing, and never-ending, we can know these and we can have them more and more in our lives now. We can find harmony and peace. We can find wholeness and oneness. Each is within our reach; each is within our grasp.

A union of love: We can mend and heal. We can forgive and be forgiven. We can love ... we can be loved as we only hoped that sometime we would, and we can be loving as only we imagined that someday we could.

Each, in our own worlds, can make the maps we are now destined to make. Together, upon our shared Earth, we can take another giant's step in our individual and shared Great Work.

We can triumph with what our respective consensus realities tell us we should not even dare dream. We can – human and faerie – each be beneficiaries in our respective worlds. The world we share can triumph as well.

Lazaris extends an invitation to participate in two extraordinary rituals: A Union of Magicians and A Union of Love. We feel the stirring. Welcome. ...

Evening with Lazaris:

Intimacy That Works: Union, Co-Union, and Communion

Thursday Evening, June 17, 2004, 7:30 – 11:00 p.m.

Intimacy ... Its presence can be the most exhilarating, the most wondrous, and the most magical dream of a lifetime. Its absence can be a frightening, painful, and debilitating nightmare.

Intimacy ... It is the steely backbone of growing, changing, and evolving. It is also the most fragile fabric motivating that very growth, change, and evolution.

– Lazaris

We all know the word and we all seek its magic, yet intimacy remains so elusive. The yearning and longing for the wholeness that intimacy offers is innate within each of us, yet our search seems never to end.

Lazaris begins the evening by reviewing our intimacy issues and then swiftly moves to exploring the mystery and the magic of union, of co-union, and then of communion. He first introduced these ideas during our exploration of the power of belonging. Now they become dynamic and powerful voices guiding us in our pursuit of intimacy ... intimacy that works in our daily lives and intimacy that works in ways for which we only hope: ways that are still beyond our imaginations and beyond our expectations and anticipations.

Intimacy can be both keystone and cornerstone to our work with creating union this year or during any year. Intimacy offers us magic ... a magic beyond compare. Welcome to a wondrously exhilarating and magical night.

Welcome....

Forgiveness: The Miracle of Magic

5-1/2 Hours of Excerpts from the Forgiveness: The Miracle of Magic Workshop

Including Two Meditations, One Newly Recorded for These Excerpts

Amid all the mysteries, it is forgiveness that is the miracle of magic – is the miracle of your magic. – Lazaris

We are fortunate to know so much about forgiveness. We have transformed our lives, transcended our pasts, and have created our personal realities now rich with dignity, character, vitality, and vision. Somewhere in the mystery between forgiving ourselves and forgiving others, there is an incredible force that produces change ... change that can be astounding. Somewhere between ... in that mystery there is an incredible light that can generate miracles. Our magic can come alive with that light. Our magic can change. Its texture and its nature can be miraculous.

During these excerpts, Lazaris briefly explores our resistance to the force of forgiveness, and then elegantly moves to the examination of the process of forgiveness. He guides us upon a most amazing ritual/meditation called the Valley of Forgiveness for forgiving ourselves, and then he guides us upon another magical ritual and meditation, the Circle of Forgiveness, most effective for forgiving others.

He concluded this weekend exploration with the technique: Waiting Upon the Light of Forgiveness. For those of us there, it was a magical and miraculous weekend. With these excerpts you can share a bit of what so many of us lived. These excerpts include a recording of the two Rituals of Forgiveness: The Circle of Forgiveness and The Valley of Forgiveness. The latter meditation was especially recorded by Lazaris for these excerpts.

Becoming an Artisan of Triumph

Triumph can transform success, no matter how large or small, into success that can be both magical and miraculous, in which achievements and accomplishments are exuberant with happiness and joy. Triumph, a standing wave of resonance more powerful than the components that compose it, becomes an attractor and an anchor for magical and miraculous success. With the artistry of triumph comes the elegance of living an enriched life guided by the Divine within us and beyond us – guided by our soul, by our spirit, and by God/Goddess/All That Is. Yet we fall short of its artistry, and we have resistances to it: Lack of Understanding/Knowing, Negative Ego's Prattle, Distorted Perspective, and Jealousy/Envy of Others. Lazaris unfolds specific ways to respond to the resistance and outlines several new techniques to both develop the craft and to become the artist of creating and manifesting triumph in our lives. Meditation included: The Art of Triumph.

Discovering and Engaging the Elegance of Creating and Manifesting

Our work with consciously creating and co-creating can be lifted to greater levels of achievement. Our resonance work can be richer with more fulfilling success and happiness. Our happiness can lift to joy and peak with ecstasy. And our desires can blossom, becoming splendid desires, as we find both richness and noble pride in the ways of living our lives. There is so much we can gain, there is so much we can garner, as we discover and then engage the elegance of creating and manifesting. Lazaris opens the evening's discussion with an exploration of the components of the elegance of creating: grace, beauty, dignity, dynamism, inspiration, eminence, and excellence. After this lively look into the mystery of elegance, Lazaris guides us upon a powerful meditation to seek, receive, and then hold the gift of elegance within our hearts, a gift that comes from "the hand of the divine." The magical meditation is followed with a step-by-step process for discovering and engaging this elegance in our work with creating and manifesting. Meditation included: Gift of Elegance.

The Magic of Divine Union

Divine Love ... "the love that loves for no reason at all ... the love you can do nothing to gain and can do nothing to lose." To help us gain a sense of this august and rare love, Lazaris begins with a touching exploration of the progression of love, from the reasons why we love, beyond memory and beyond imagination, to the state in which the why of love becomes the what of love. Lazaris explores what he calls the players ... the aspects of ourselves that are integral to reaching Divine Love: Objector/Protector, Shadow (Dark & Light), Passion Stealer, and Personal Nemesis. We also need the help of our Ego-I, our Lesser/More, and from our more realized Self-I. During a mystical meditation, the players gather, and each one gives us a treasure essential for our success. In the magic of that moment, we can be gifted with Divine Union, the oneness with God, the oneness with Goddess, and the oneness with All That Is. Wrapped in the miraculous, we can be filled with the oneness of Divine Love. It was truly a magical evening overflowing with love. The resonance as well as the discussion and meditation, Divine Union, were captured on tape.

Unraveling and Activating the Greatest Secret of Success

We know success. We understand and can release what Lazaris calls the "standard-bearing" fears of success. We even understand the greatest secret of success, but we have yet to unravel it. This discussion explores this greatest singular secret, and Lazaris helps us reveal the hidden within it: Becoming more conscious, the importance and power of choice, the nature of choice, and the balance of power between consciousness and choice are the steps to unraveling. We can create an alliance between our unconscious power and our conscious choice, and the result: Success becomes both unlimited and unstoppable. Lazaris continues this magical evening with further exploration of how we can activate this secret ... how we can let it thrive in our reality. With preparation, illumination, and initiation – and then with the interplay of personal myth – this greatest secret can come alive and our magic can be joyous as well as triumphant. A powerful meditation, Capsule of Love/Will, is included.

The Mystical Other

There is a world ... the world of Other ... where magic laughs with the winds and dances with the waters. Cradled by the earth, magic blossoms with the light of each new dawn's day. – Lazaris

We can begin an adventure that can last far beyond the remaining years of this lifetime. It can stretch and grow beyond all space and beyond all time. Lazaris is there for us as we begin this adventure in earnest. As this evening's discussion begins, Lazaris tells us a story ... an enchanting and magical story ... about the "first adventures" into the Realm of Nature Spirits and Faeries. Then he speaks of the Ether – the pre-conceptual and the pre-structural that emerges from and surrounds the Essence. Out of the Ether, energy generates force. Out of the energies and forces, dynamism produces the Elements. Out of the interplay, the Spirit of Nature manifests, and the world of Nature Spirits unfolds. Lazaris also speaks of many misconceptions – and then of the more-real conceptions – of the Other, the Mystical Other, and the Faerie Realm. For example, Gnomes, Undines, Sylphs, and Salamanders are Nature Spirits: They are not Faeries, though they're often thought of as such. Elves are not Faeries. Then Lazaris takes us on a guided meditation, First Foray into the Mystical Other, to set our adventure in motion, and offers technique to allow that beginning to be meaningful and valuable. Lazaris opens gateways and shines a light along the pathways to the Mystical Other, and we "will never be the same again."
