Beyond Fear: Discovering New Dimensions of Greater and Grander Success and Happiness

There is magic in the telling; there is mystery in the discovering and power in the exploring; and there are miracles in the living. Beyond the bounds of your private fears there are so many wonders to discover and explore.

There is so much mystery to unfold and magic to embrace. We invite you to plunge into the depths of that magic and into the breadth of the mystery and power otherwise ignored or lost beyond fear – beyond your personal fear. Come. Begin living beyond the telling. Begin living the miracles ... — Lazaris

Beyond fear, the success and happiness that we know can give way to greater and grander success and happiness. Beyond fear success can be deeper and more magical, and happiness can be unparalleled ... even unprecedented. What lies beyond fear? Beyond comprehension, beyond imagination, magic and miracles can abound.

As they all are, this is a particularly exciting intensive. Basically Lazaris is going to guide us into a house that is not unlike a haunted house. It is our house of fears. Actually it is our Maze of Personal Fear. Step by step and room by room, we will explore this amazing labyrinth. Sure, we will confront and we will encounter fear — old ones and perhaps some new ones — but that will not be our focus. The emphasis will be upon searching for the wonders, the mysteries, and the magic that are lost and that would otherwise remain lost in our personal maze ... in this mysterious labyrinth. Gathering these resources, we will then move beyond ... we will move beyond fear to work with the wonders, the mystery, and the magic. We can begin living the miracles.

Fears: Often snared, trapped, or even imprisoned by them, too often we attempt to circumvent our fears by ignoring or running from them. Often wounded, sometimes bleeding, too often we shrink or recoil at the very hint or threat of their presence. Yet there is so much that we miss with these responses.

Lazaris will work with us to safely move beyond the fear we know and beyond the fear we suspect might be "lying in wait" for us. It takes three days to make our way through the maze and to move beyond fear. With Lazaris as our guide, step by step we will make our way deeper and deeper into and through this mysterious labyrinth, discovering and exploring the recesses and the hidden, sometimes secret, chambers.

Amid the exploration and discovery we can unravel the truer functions of our fear, and we can harness the raw energy and sheer, untamed force of fear — of our unique and distinctive personal fear. We can develop and build confidence and expertise to encounter (rather than to ignore or recoil from) our fear.

Beyond Fear: Discovering New Dimensions of Greater and Grander Success and Happiness

We can learn to embrace and then to move beyond our fear. We will emerge stronger and more powerful. We may doubt our own strength and power, but do we doubt the strength and power of our fear?

What could we create and then manifest from that creation if fear were an ally? From the essence of fear, we truly can design, develop, and direct so much more of our personal future and so much more of the future for all of us.

Amid this magical maze, our lives can change. We can become free of snares, traps, and prisons of fear. We can use our fears to lift out or to be lifted out, and we can move beyond them. Magically, we can transcend our fears.

Beyond the telling, beyond the discovering and exploring ... beyond fear ... we can begin living the miracles.

Welcome. ...

Evening with Lazaris:

The Beauty of Personal Peace... The Magic of Confidence and Composure

Thursday Evening, July 20, 2006, 7:30 – 11:00 p.m.

It's time to dream more daring dreams. — Lazaris

The mystery of mattering stirs up so much in each of us. Rich with thoughts and feelings, emotions dip, rise, and then fall again only to lift once more into the light of possibility. New ideas ripe with eagerness and enthusiasm surface, too, but often anxiety, worry, and self-doubt accompany them. Even as we know what matters to us, the mystery of mattering with its power and its magic can be confounding ... even disturbing.

Within the wonder of inner peace — within the beauty of personal peace — we can find a special magic; we can unfold a powerful magic. In the sheer beauty we can discover and utilize the special magic of confidence and the more rare magic of composure. Lazaris has constructed another delightfully loving evening in which we can learn to temper the mystery and to quell the tumult of mattering.

As Lazaris says, it is time to dream more daring dreams. We can learn to more clearly navigate our Tiers of Emotions more effectively, to engage our trust, to Lean upon Soul, and to Build upon Spirit ... new techniques for more daring dreaming and techniques to awaken personal peace and to develop a newfound confidence and composure.

It's a magical evening; it's a reassuring and comforting evening. Welcome. ...

An Important Note: New Deadline for Advance Ticket Prices ...

The Lost Magic of Prosperity

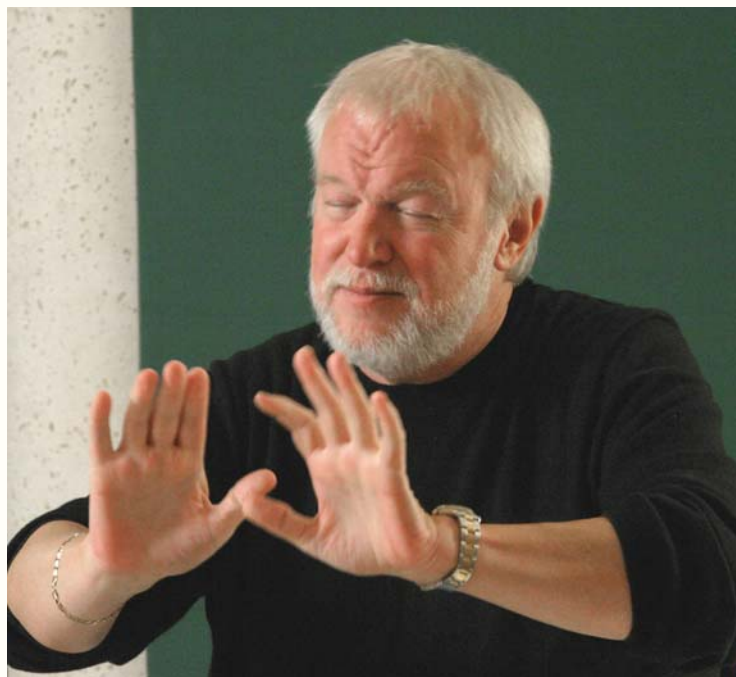

Lazaris begins the journey of prosperity by looking beyond its obvious allure and simple definitions. He first reviews the truer meaning of success and then moves forward with illuminating that foundation with a deeper exploration of the voices of abundance and the mystery of good fortune.

The preparation and illumination can spark prosperity. Prosperity is more than the words great, abundant, or excessive suggest: Prosperity has to do with enjoying success, and it has to do with an enriched texture of good fortune added to the mixture of success and abundance. There is magic in it.

After detailing the ingredients of prosperity, Lazaris explains four powerful techniques, both to awaken prosperity in our reality and to find the magic — the lost magic — that it holds: Seven Days to Prosperity; Amulet of Prosperity; Becoming a Beacon of Inspiration; Asking for Wealth. An elegant meditation, Planting the Seeds of Prosperity, is included.

Maturing Our Magic: Sitting with the Ancients

[Click To Register

In the eyes of the Ancients ... These old eyes delight in the journey of the Fool, and yet they grow weary with the antics of the foolish.

Oh, dear one, come join us as the first half of this year completes and the second half begins. Come join us and sit with the Ancients. Seek their counsel, seek their gifts, and revel in their grace.

— Lazaris

When we first began, we sought aliveness, wholeness, and togetherness as well as individuality; we wanted to become more. We searched for love; we were looking for our soul and spirit. When we first began, we used magic to get stuff for ourselves. We have grown and we have changed. And we have received so much. And yes, we have become more ... so much more ... than we dreamed and so much more than we imagined we would be. Oh, how we have received the bounty and how we have matured as magicians.

With that maturity, we now use our magic to give. As the Year of Mattering reaches its halfway mark, once again it is time to mature our magic as we have matured ourselves. Our magic can become an even more powerful conduit for giving: triggering aliveness and wholeness, sparking individuality, igniting love, and flowing the miracles of belonging with an awakened soul and an enlivened spirit. There was no workshop planned for June ... until now. Come join Lazaris online for this two-hour event.

We will join together with Lazaris, coming from all parts of the world. First, we will sit with each other; then we will Call the Ancients and Sit with the Ancients. This alone can trigger amazing changes in us and in our world. There are no words to adequately describe the wonder of this ancient ritual.

Beyond sitting with the Ancients, we will gather the precise energies that we need individually to mature our personal magic. With these energies we will work the "lost magic of the smithies" ... we will forge these energies anew. We will forge and reform our magic, stronger and more powerful than before.

Our magic can become a reservoir and a well-spring for aliveness, togetherness, and love. We and our world can become more. What a bountiful gift we can give. Come join Lazaris. Come actively and consciously participate with Lazaris, with each other, and with the Ancients. Welcome to a magical event on the Internet.

A Thought for June from Lazaris ...

A life worth living ... a life worth loving ... a life radiant with your light and your divinity, a life abundantly glimmering with endless opportunity ... always more.

Always more ... Together, let us stir the energies and spark the forces. Now is the time to awaken the magic. Now is the time to unveil even more of the magic in you and the magic of you.

Living, loving, radiant, and glimmering, you are more ready than you know, more ready than you admit, to enter the new millennium and its new years: its building years.

Lazaris' Recommendations for July

Finding the Mattering in Your Life

Click for Sound Clip

Mattering can be alive with mystery and vivid with magic. ... Its mystery and magic can trigger something more, and something beyond, that can be transcendent. There is splendor in it. — Lazaris Lazaris begins this evening's exploration by pointing out why mattering matters: From feeding our soul to awakening our spirit to creating new "adult dreams," finding the mattering in our lives has immense value and power. Yet we resist. Beyond our resistance we can discover numerous avenues — avenues other than tragedy: exquisite moments and defining moments of love; engaging our minds (beyond our conscious brains); and seeking the light and beauty of our framework (memories, myths, dreams, and visions). We can stir the essence of mattering and capture that mattering in our lives: We can also consciously work with the fundamentals of mattering from humility to love and thinking/feeling; from possibility to courage and joy. Additionally, we can work with the seven notes and five tones of knowing.

The evening concludes as Lazaris lays out a foundation of techniques and then guides us in a meditation. That meditation, Finding the Mattering, is included.

Intimacy That Works: Union, Co-Union, Communion

Click for Sound Clip

Intimacy: We all know the words, and we are all aware of our personal list of "why not." Lazaris guides us past what we already know of intimacy into the realm of its mystery, and thus into its power and magic.

During this enchanting evening, Lazaris explores how to build intimacy: (1) Lay a foundation by balancing our Light and Substance. (2) Build a structural armature that begins by exposing ourselves to our own secrets and ends with the reminder to stop testing and to start loving and caring. (3) Move past the four Sentinels of Fear (Exposure, Perception, Paradox, and Magic). And (4) activate the map by generating Union: a Wholeness; Co-Union: sharing ourselves with another; and then Communion: experiencing an enchanting moment in which to "make — to create and manifest — love." There is a stunning meditation — Union, Co-Union, Communion — included in which we journey beyond and find the magic of intimacy ... of intimacy that works.

New Horizons of Potential and Opportunity

Click for Sound Clip

With a new window of potential, with a new door of opportunity, we can make more potent decisions and find the means to implement and accomplish them. We can discover more fruitful directions to achieve the caring, loving, and living we seek. As well, we can unravel old patterns and dismantle current patterns that block or obscure our success. We can embrace our Radiance of Resonance, abundance, momentum, and balance. Lazaris shows us where to look for the new window and the new door of potential and opportunity. With specific technique, we can open that new window to retrieve relinquished and lost power; restore our lost or abandoned Self; utilize the Capacitance of Resonance; and work with the concept of Resolving v. Solving. During the discussion, Lazaris teaches us how to use amulets and talismans of our resonance and our momentum along with amulets or talismans for abundance and balance to generate a gateway to the mysterious and mystical where we can find our potential and opportunity. While there, we can also unfold and discover new, never-before-known potential and opportunity as well. A magnificent meditation, Opening the New Window of Potential and Opportunity, is included.

A magnificent technique from the weekend Secrets of Longevity, Clues to Immortality, Part II, this meditation can be used for healing of every sort. The chakra-oriented meditation uses color and direct visualization to concentrate healing energy in the places and ways desired. It can also help alleviate the conditions that result from what Lazaris calls "Subconscious Reflexes" — emotions such as self-pity and self-hatred spilling out of the Subconscious — and time bombs from the Unconscious that seem to go off without warning. Lazaris talks about how to use the energy for specific physical maladies, for mental disturbances in the form of errant, self-destructive or hurtful thoughts, or emotionally debilitating guilt, resentment, or shame. It is an invaluable asset for healing on every level.
